

Fall Writing Contest

Write2Ignite! is pleased to announce a Fall-themed Writing Contest!
Target audience: Young Adult (YA) readers

We are seeking submission of stories set in autumn! Have you written a story with students going back to school? Set at a high school football game? Enjoying a bonfire or hayride? Then this is the contest for you!

The winner will receive the following:

- * a free Two-for-One Critique
- * announcement of the winner's name and story title on the Write2Ignite! website
- * an interview with the winner posted on the Write2Ignite! website
- * recognition at the 2017 Write2Ignite! Conference

Submission Guidelines:

Submit a story written for a young adult audience and set during autumn

Story length: maximum of 1500 words Reminder: *Sometimes "less is more":
Use only the number of words needed to tell a complete story.*

Use Times New Roman font in size 12 and double-space your writing.

Submissions should include a cover page listing the title of your work, your name and address, and your e-mail. Each page of the story text should show the title of your work and the page number only. Judges will see only the story text. After a winner is selected, the contest director will reunite the title page with the story and contact the winner.

Judging will be done by a panel made up of members of the Write2Ignite! Leadership Team.

Submit entries by e-mail at registration@write2ignite.com with Fall YA Writing Contest in the subject line.

Entry fee of $10.00 may be paid by mail sent to Fall Writing Contest, c/o Cathy Biggerstaff, 410 Aydlotte Rd., Rutherfordton, NC 28139.

Deadline for submissions is midnight, November 15, 2016 EST. Winner will be announced November 30, 2016.

Happy writing!
